4. The Mushroom and Swiss

There are very few burgers that can actually beat this classic. Portobello mushrooms, an all beef burger, juicy tomatoes, and melted oozing swiss cheese makes for an amazing burger! And ya'll thought the Swiss only made good chocolate!

3. The Turkey Burger

The Turkey Burger is definitely no jive turkey! This turkey burger is actually made at Red Cow Burgers and Beer right here in the Twin Cities! Made with a hand-patted ground turkey, provolone cheese, red pepper, and a few slices of bacon topped with a grilled bun! Who says turkey is only for Thanksgiving? 🍔

This turkey was ranked No.1 in USA Today's list of best turkey burgers in America!

2. The Juicy Bleucy

The Juicy Bleucy is a concept burger that uses the same concept that the Juicy Lucy, made famous by Matt's Bar, uses. However, the cheddar cheese is replaced by bleu cheese. Nothing says delicious like biting into a burger and getting a mouthful of bleu cheese!
